SUMMER ON KING'S ROAD
Independent package, 8 days/7 nights

Helsinki - Porvoo - Turku - Stockholm
The King's Road is the historical route between the old northern capitals of Oslo, Stockholm, Turku, Helsinki and St. Petersburg. Dating back to the 13th century, the ancient road winds along the Finnish southern coastline past castles, manor houses and cottages. Originally, The King's Road served as an important connection between the powerful kingdoms of Sweden and Russia. Today, it is a remarkable testament to history. Taverns and inns that offered refuge to the weary traveller are still intact. Old stone Churches and iron mills also remain as witnesses to the many Kings and Czars who travelled along the royal road. Now a national trust, The King's Road is a piece of antiquity in a very modern world. It flourishes as an Imperial passageway back through time.

Departure dates: Saturdays, Mondays and Wednesdays June 3rd to Sep 13th. Included: Accommodation in First Class hotels in Helsinki, Turku (Naantali) and Stockholm, 2nd class train ticket Helsinki-Turku, Siika Line cruise Turku-Stockholm in Seaside cabin, daily breakfast, transfers and sightseeing as per itinerary, applicable taxes.

DFDS SEAWAYS - Master of the Northern Seas

Welcome on board to a better way of travelling! The sleek white liners have all the comfort and facilities normally associated with larger cruise ships. The buffet restaurant is an all-time favourite; the abundant Scandinavian smorgasbord is a feast not to be missed. All ships have live bands, and for the young at heart the discotheque swings into the early hours.

DFDS Seaways has provided passenger services for more than 130 years, with a fleet considered to be one of the largest in northern Europe. Currently, the company operates seven modern passenger ships and to make a comparison can say that they are one of Scandinavia's largest "hotel chains", with approx. 9,000 "bed-nights" every night during the summer season and "parking facilities" for 2,500 cars.

In a year, DFDS transports approximately 1.8 million passengers and 200,000 cars on eight routes traversing the sea between Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Germany, Holland, and Great Britain. When you travel with DFDS Seaways, you will experience a genuine maritime atmosphere, in style, and with a truly international level of service.
